

WE'RE MOVING TO Thailand

It may come as a bit of a surprise, but yes we are moving to Thailand! You might ask why a newlywed couple would feel the need or even the desire to move their lives all the way to Thailand? Well its been a bit of a process; God started putting it on our hearts over a year ago before we were even engaged. God quickly spun something he was speaking to us individually into a vision that we as a couple felt called to. After we were married this past November the vision God had been speaking to us early in our relationship was brought back to our hearts and we made the decision to commit to moving to Thailand, and thus our adventure begins

We will be moving the summer of 2015 to Northern Thailand as a part of YWAM Thailand and are currently in the process of applying to a specific ministry called the 'Shan Project.' The Shan Project currently provides bible training to Shan believers from Myanmar and aims to bring holistic transformation through the Bible. We aim to use our love for coffee as a way to provide practical change amongst the Shan, while also creating open doors to relationship and an avenue for the Gospel. We will be learning language for our first year in Thailand while also practically finding our place in the coffee world of Thailand. The year ahead of us holds many changes and many steps towards this big transition to life in Asia. We would ask that you partner with us as we endeavor to follow the Lord in His calling to Thailand and to the Shan.
